

Hello!

My official name is Australopithecus Afarensis, but you could call me by my name that was given to me by anthropologists, Lucy. I really enjoy eating plants, and while I did not have tools, I did walk upright, just like you. While I prefer plants and softer foods, I could eat harder nuts and tubers if I really had to! That's all I have to share, go check out the other hominins!